Dear Parents/Carers,

Our topic for this half term is 'Bright Lights, Big City'. As part of this topic the children will be learning about 'The Great Fire of London' and will be making Tudor houses out of cardboard to represent what London would have looked like in 1666 at the time of the fire.

We will soon be planning and making our Tudor houses from card and paper. We kindly ask that you supply your child with a cereal box or something similar for them to make their model (please see photo below). Please provide this by Friday, 23rd November. If you have more than one please could you bring in extra for children who may not have one. We will try to collect some spares as well.

We also wanted to remind you that for our 'Memorable Experience' this topic, the children will be receiving a very special royal invitation for afternoon tea with "Her Majesty the Queen"!

On Tuesday 20th November, our classrooms will be transformed into a royal space and the children are invited to wear their best attire for the day. This can be a smart suit or a bow tie, a sparkly dress or special outfit. The teachers will be attending in their very best outfits, so please dress to impress!

The children have received an invitation at school today and are very excited about her arrival. Please do not buy anything special, any smart clothes or party outfits will be perfect.

Thank you in advance,

The Year 1 team
